

COMO BLUFF TRAIL

The Como Bluff Trail starts at the Como Lake Recreation site and follows an historic ridgeline trail to terminate on a knoll offering great views down the north end of Atlin lake and Mount Minto (K'iyán). The trail also doubles as an access trail to one of Atlin's busiest rock-climbing crags and criss-crosses the popular Mountain Bike Trail.

Keep an eye out for trail markers to help you on your way.

You are enjoying Taku River Tlingit Territory please be respectful of the land.

To report trail conditions or bear sitings, please send a message to the atlinalpinesociety@gmail.com

Also, visit atlinalpinesociety.com for more recreation information in the Atlin area

TAKU RIVER TLINGIT
First Nation

DISTANCE: 1KM (ONE-WAY)

ELEVATION GAIN: 164M

DIFFICULTY: MODERATE