

TROND GULCH TRAIL

The Trond Gulch Trail starts across the road from the Como Lake Recreation Site and makes a loop in Trond Gulch.

The trail starts in a mixed spruce/fir forest and quickly moves to open pine with sections along exposed ridges

Pit toilets are available at the Como Lake Recreation Site.

There is a network of trails in Trond Gulch. Keep an eye out for trail markers to help you on your way.

You are enjoying Taku River Tlingit Territory please be respectful of the land.

To report trail conditions or bear sightings, please send a message to the atlinalpinesociety@gmail.com

Also, visit atlinalpinesociety.com for more recreation information in the Atlin area

Trailhead

TAKU RIVER TLINGIT
First Nation

DISTANCE: 5KM (RETURN)

ELEVATION GAIN: 181M

DIFFICULTY: EASY